

Michele McCormack

Whitefish Bay, WI

(414) 763-8305

Experience

October 2005-Present-Reporter/Anchor WDJT Milwaukee, WI

- Began as morning anchor, promoted to weekend nights then weekday anchoring 5 & 10
- Part of team that experienced unprecedented ratings for station and Best Newcast Awards from AP and WI Broadcasters Assoc. in the same year
- Michele has never forgotten her reporting roots and routinely reports on variety of stories from award winning features to exclusive crime beat reports

December 1997-October 2005-Reporter/Editor WPVI Philadelphia, PA

- Began as morning weekend reporter, then quickly promoted to prime breaking news reporter for 11
- Dispatched to cover big national stories from Presidential Recount to Shuttle Columbia Disaster to Super Bowl
- Broke the Hamilton NJ mail sorting facility connection to anthrax attacks
- George M. Steele Media Awards from the NJ Benevolent Firefighters Assoc.

December 1994-December 1997-Reporter/Anchor/Editor KMBC Kansas City, MO

- Started as general assignment reporter, then promoted to weekend anchor
- Emmy nominated for team coverage of fatal cargo plane crash

August 1993-December 1994-Reporter/Editor KWCH, Wichita, KS

- Weekend morning reporter, promoted to weeknight breaking news reporter for 10
- Broke series of exclusive interviews with convicted quadruple murderer, later referred to as the modern day "In Cold Blood" case

September 1992-August 1993- Reporter/Anchor/Producer WGEM Quincy, IL

- Helped station launch 24 hour operation
- Edward R. Murrow Award for Spot News, Floods of '93

EDUCATION

BA Broadcasting, Pepperdine University-Carmel High School for Girls, Mundelein, IL